Let the worship of this house go deeper , let them tap into your river. A river of fire, the river that is a consuming fire, and will come and burn up those things that have tried to hold back. But Lord you have showed me this morning , you said that this church has crossed over the midnight hour. You showed me the hands of the clock and you showed me that they were at 3 o'clock, and you said to me that is the darkest time of the night and I am coming says the Lord, and I am going to walk across the water just as I as you read says the Lord, and I am going to come and sit in your boat. For as the dawn starts to break upon this house its going to be a new day. Come with a fresh expectancy SLT (says the Lord), that your not going to see things as they were yesterday, this is new day and a new hour for this house SLT, I am giving you authority upon your lives, and I am giving authority upon this house , for this is an apostolic church, with an apostolic calling SLT, it is a teaching church, a training church, a church that will go after the demons and will go after the devil and you shall be victorious SLT, get ready for I am even bringing a fresh dealing in your hearts and your lives. people that are going to say " I don't know if I can take this shaking and they are going to have to make a decision, they either are going to put there feet firmly upon the ground and put there hand upon the plow or they are going to have be a spectator, but no more are they going to come in the front and sneaking out the back SLT. I am bringing a permanency to this church SLT, I bringing a new level of commitment and loyalty , yea even into the hearts of the half committed SLT, I am allowing my spirit to blow through and blow the nonsense out of the church to blow through the unloyalty in the church, I am bringing a dedication and a heart of commitment to these people that will go deep, know this SLT, your cedars planted alongside the river of God, know this SLT, the river is about to overflow its banks, you need to be ready nets in hand SLT.
